Kompong Phlluk - Village on Stilts

Full Day Guided Adventure

Located some 18km from Siem Reap the village of Komong Phlluk is an absolute must see. Built on the flood plains of the Tonle Sap the houses here tower on stilts as high as 10 meters. In wet season the stilts are hidden and water laps at the floor boards.

Our tour includes all transport out to the village. On route we take in a fantastic local market, an ideal short stop for photos. We journey by boat to the village where you are at liberty to explore this amazing place. Peoples livelihoods are built around the water, with fish and shrimp harvesting being a staple. Few foreigners make it out this far, making this a special place to visit.
